

The Saxon Gymnastics Federation (STV) preserves the legacy of Friedrich Ludwig Jahn through a wide range of modern exercise and training programs in health, recreational, grassroots, and competitive sports within the field of gymnastics. One of the federation's key responsibilities is the education and development of athletes in elite sports, up to participation in European and World Championships and the Olympic Games.

To support young female athletes at the national training center in Chemnitz, the Saxon Gymnastics Federation (STV) is hiring a full-time Junior Coach (f/m/d) in Women's Artistic Gymnastics, starting January 1, 2026, who possesses strong communication and interpersonal skills. The role includes developing athletes from basic training to the junior and advanced levels. In addition to athletic and technical expertise the position requires the ability to foster and coordinate relationships with regional training centers and various departments such as coaching, medicine, science, and education.

Junior Coach (f/m/d) – Women's Artistic Gymnastics Full-time (40,0 h/week)

Key Responsibilities:

- High-performance training of young athletes and developing them into the junior level
- Professional, methodological, and organizational planning and execution of training at the national center in coordination with the head coaching team
- Regular exchange with the head of the national training center, the national junior coach of the German Gymnastics Federation (DTB), and the coaching staff about the athletic and personal development of athletes
- Consistent documentation of training data in accordance with DTB guidelines
- Participation in national training camps and competitions
- Contribution to the education and training of coaches
- Accompanying athletes to sports medical and other performance diagnostics evaluations
- Participation in exchange formats at state and national levels
- Participation in continuing education opportunities

Your Profile:

- A university degree with a focus on sports science, physical education or a comparable qualification
- Understanding of sports federation and club structures
- Structured working style and strong self-management skills
- Willingness to travel and work flexible hours (including weekends), Class B driver's license
- Excellent knowledge of MS Office
- Basic written and spoken German skills
- Reliability, teamwork, and communication skills
- Experience in high-performance sports, a diploma in coaching, a DTB B-license in artistic gymnastics, or an equivalent international qualification

We offer:

- Performance-related pay
- A dynamic and varied range of responsibilities
- Financial support for coach education and training
- Short decision-making processes and open, appreciative communication

Interested?

Then please send your application by October 31, 2025, by email only, as a single PDF file (max. 5 MB) to:

info@stv-turnen.de